

Cloyne & District Historical Society

Minutes of a General Meeting

November 20, 2023, at 1 PM in the Barrie Hall

There were 17 members and guests. Jeff Green of the Frontenac News was present.

1 President Warren Anderson called the meeting to order at 1.05 PM

Opening Ceremony: O' Canada One Moment of Silence

2. Ian Brumell introduced speaker Marg Axford. She spoke on the history of Land O' Lakes Community Services and Pine Meadow Nursing Home. She made special reference to Isobel Stewart and her good work in the Community. The address is available www.cloynepioneermuseum.ca Carolyn McCulloch thanked her.

Eileen Flieler has been working with The North Frontenac Historical Society to produce the history of schoolhouses in the Township. She had researched the history of the one on her own property. and presented her research to our archives. She presented the work of The North Frontenac Historical Society's most recent book, The Schools of North Frontenac to our Museum Library.

The Draft Minutes of the General Meeting on Oct 16th were approved.

Business Arising: Christmas Party. Convener, Marlene McLean reviewed the arrangements: It will be held on Dec 4 at Hunter's Creek Golf Club. Advance tickets are available at $30.00 Guests are to bring a gift for exchange, and something for the food bank.

Treasurer's Report. Accounts of note paid: Insurance $3200. There is $2667 in the current account: $16,368 in the Reserve Fund, and $86,873 in the Endowment Fund.

Communications: The fall Newsletter was distributed.

New Member, Cindy Austin, a genealogist who will speak at our February meeting was introduced.

The Lions Santa Clause Parade will be held on November 25th in the evening

The CDHS will have a booth at the Dec 2 Christmas Extravaganza where our books shall be sold.

The Pioneer Museum sign was uprooted by the wind this month. Ian, Ken, and Guy have taken it down and ordered lumber for the uprights that will have to be replaced. The sign is not damaged, and it will be reinstalled in the spring.

The meeting was adjourned. Next meeting is on Jan 15th at 1 PM in the Barrie Hall